

Chapter 6 Study Guide

***Use the quizlet set (ss213.weebly.com) as well to study with*****

PEOPLE & GROUPS

How did these people and groups contribute to the war effort?

- George Washington
- Francis Marion
- African Americans and the Revolution (free men and enslaved)
- The Common Soldier (who were they? why did they fight?)
- Marquis de Lafayette
- Women and the Revolution
- Loyalists and the Revolution
- American Indians and the Revolution

BATTLES AND EVENTS

What was the basic information for these battles events? How did these battles and events shape and affect the war?

- Long Island (AKA New York)
- Trenton
- Philadelphia (Brandywine and Germantown)
- Saratoga
- Valley Forge (not really a battle)
- Charles Town (2nd one)
- Yorktown
- The Treaty of Paris

MAIN IDEAS

Be familiar with these main ideas for the chapter.

- What advantages did the Americans and British have?
- How did Washington and the Continental Army struggle with the Continental Congress?
- How did the French help the American war effort?
- How did inflation affect life in the United States during the war?
- How did fighting a defensive war and using hit and run tactics help the American war and make the British effort more difficult?
- How did the British use their navy to their advantage?
- Why did Britain shift its focus to the south?
- How did Washington show strong leadership during and after the war?
- What were the 2 most important factor in helping the Americans win the Revolutionary War?

People and Groups – Select two items that you are most unfamiliar with to describe in the spaces below.

1. _____:

---

---

2. _____:

---

---

Battles and Events – Select two items that you are most unfamiliar with describe in the spaces below.

3. _____:

---

---

4. _____:

---

---

Main Ideas – Answer two of the main idea questions that you are most unfamiliar with.

5. _____

---

---

---

---

6. _____

---

---

---

---