

NAME:

Revolutionary War Movie Trailer

Lights, camera, REVOLUTION! The Revolutionary War is not only where America officially started, but is also a defining moment in World History. The only appropriate way to show our knowledge of such a dramatic event is to create a dramatic project. Therefore, you are going to think of the Revolutionary War, and the vital elements of the war, as a movie that will soon premiere. To generate interest in the movie you will create a movie trailer for the Revolutionary War that includes a glimpse of the people, ideas, and battles that defined the war. Your requirements are listed below.

Requirements and Rubric
Research You are required to research at least 4 topics to possibly include in your movie trailer. This is something that you must do individually. The research guide is on the back of this paper. A list of topic ideas can be found at the class website under Chapter 6. Part of the research will need to be completed on your own.	- 0-6	✓ 7-8	+ 9-10
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• This needs to be thorough and show effort• Must be complete BEFORE you work with a partner• Each partner must have their own research• MUST be checked off by the end of class Thursday 11/20
Trailer Your trailer will be created in class using the iMovie App on the iPads. You must complete the trailer with images and text. You may work with a partner on this part of the project.	- 0-10	✓ 11-12	+ 13-15
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Accurate images are used for your topics from the Drop Box folders• Text descriptions are accurate, spelled correctly, and say something meaningful about the topic.• A title that is accurate, creative, and unique is used• MUST be complete and uploaded from the iPad by end of class Tuesday 11/25
Analysis You will complete a trailer analysis sheet along with the trailer. This is a separate paper that each person will complete as you create your movie trailer	- 0-6	✓ 7-8	+ 9-10
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Topic images and text explained in a clear, understandable, and accurate manner• A summary that gives a glimpse of the plot of the movie including the topics from the trailer• Is neatly written and uses correct grammar and spelling• MUST be complete and turned in by the end of class Tuesday 11/25

GRADE: _____/35 | Comments:

RESEARCH GUIDE

Topic 1:

Details (where, when,
what happened)
AND Importance to the War

Source(s):

Topic 2:

Details (where, when,
what happened)
AND Importance to the War

Source(s):

Topic 3:

Details (where, when,
what happened)
AND Importance to the War

Source(s):

Topic 4:

Details (where, when,
what happened)
AND Importance to the War

Source(s):